

I do not want the banking industry to be exempt from the "NO CALL LIST" and undermine the intent of the laws as they are intended. The solicitation from a bank or other financial institutions is no different than receiving solicitation from an automobile dealer.